

INDIVIDUALIZED REVIEW AND CERTIFICATION FOR COMMUNITY SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

It is the policy of the Kern County Superintendent of Schools Office to have all students reviewed for appropriateness of enrollment in Kern County's community school programs. In addition to this local enrollment policy, the California Education Code identifies additional review and certification requirements for some students enrolled pursuant to Subdivision (c) of Section 1981. This Individualized Review and Certification for Community School Enrollment form is designed to satisfy both local requirements and state level requirements associated with California Education Code Sections 1981 and 42238.18.

Student Name _____ Date of Birth _____

California Education Code Section 1981 identifies four classifications of students who are eligible for community school enrollment. The above named student qualifies for community school enrollment based on the following classification:

- E.C. 1981 (a) School District Expulsion
- E.C. 1981 (b) School Attendance Review Board
- E.C. 1981 (c) Probation Referred or Serious Expulsion
- E.C. 1981 (d) Parent Request / District Approval

A preliminary review was completed on the above named student. This included a review of the student's 1) current conditions, 2) attendance, behavior and performance history, and 3) a personal orientation with the student and parent/guardian. Based on that review, it has been determined that enrollment in the community school program is appropriate and in the student's best interest.
