

Online Classroom: Students receive instruction through a self-paced online curriculum. This method of instruction requires daily attendance comparable to a traditional classroom schedule. Students are provided additional support from instructional staff as needed.