

Writing Rubric
Expository Compositions/ Historical Investigation Writing: College Prep Level

Writing Standards:	Meets Standard	Comments:
The writing contains 5 or more typed paragraphs that use exposition, narration, description or some combination of rhetorical strategies to support the main proposition (11/12-2.4)
The report analyzes several historical records of a single event, examining critical relationships among elements of the topic (11/12-2.4)
The report includes information from all relevant perspectives (11/12-2.4)
The report contains information derived from primary and secondary sources that enhances/supports the main proposition (11/12-2.4)
The report includes a formal bibliography (11/12-2.4)
The writing has clearly been proofread, revised and re-written to improve the style and sentence variety and to correct all errors in grammar, spelling or punctuation (11/12-1.9)
The report reflects appropriate manuscript form (11/12-1.3)		