

Veterans Elementary School

Branding of Veterans Elementary PBIS expectations are posted in multiple places so staff and students may refer to expectations.

Writing exemplars are posted within classrooms for students to compare their own writing within each grade level. Writing instruction starts early and is expected within every grade level.

Thinking Maps are used throughout all grade levels for coherence to support an impactful learning environment.