Good school attendance sets a solid foundation for success...

Too many absences — excused or unexcused — can translate into third-graders unable to master reading, sixth-graders failing courses and ninth-graders dropping out of high school.

Strive for less than five absences this school year!!